CHAPTER 11
COMMUNITY SERVICE

INTRODUCTION
This chapter explains HUD regulations requiring PHAs to implement a community service program for all non-exempt adults living in public housing.

This chapter describes HUD regulations and Housing Authority of Danville policies related to these topics in two parts:

Part I: Community Service Requirements. This part describes who is subject to the community service requirement, who is exempt, and HUD’s definition of economic self-sufficiency.

Part II: Housing Authority of Danville Implementation of Community Service. This part provides Housing Authority of Danville policy regarding implementation and program design.

PART I: COMMUNITY SERVICE REQUIREMENT

11-I.A. OVERVIEW
HUD regulations pertaining to the community service requirement are contained in 24 CFR 960 Subpart F (960.600 through 960.609). Community service is the performance of voluntary work or duties that are a public benefit, and that serve to improve the quality of life, enhance resident self-sufficiency, or increase resident self-responsibility in the community. Community service is not employment and may not include political activities [24 CFR 960.601(b)].

Notification Requirements [24 CFR 960.605(c)(2), Notice PIH 2015-12, Notice PIH 2016-06]

The PHA must give each family a written description of the community service requirement, the process for claiming status as an exempt person, and the process for PHA verification of exempt status. The PHA must also notify the family of its determination identifying the family members who are subject to the service requirement, and the family members who are exempt. In addition, the family must sign a certification, such as Attachment A of Notice PIH 2015-12, that they have received and read the policy and understand that if they are not exempt, failure to comply with the requirement will result in nonrenewal of their lease. The family must also sign a certification at annual reexamination, such as Attachment B of Notice PIH 2015-12, certifying that they understand the requirement.
Housing Authority of Danville Policy

The Housing Authority of Danville will provide the family with a copy of the Community Service Policy found in Exhibit 11-1 of this chapter, at lease-up, lease renewal, when a family member is determined to be subject to the community service requirement during the lease term, and at any time upon the family’s request.

On an annual basis, at the time of lease renewal, the Housing Authority of Danville will notify the family in writing of the family members who are subject to the community service requirement and the family members who are exempt. If the family includes nonexempt individuals the notice will include a list of agencies in the community that provide volunteer and/or training opportunities, as well as a documentation form on which they may record the activities they perform and the number of hours contributed. The form will also have a place for a signature by an appropriate official, who will certify to the activities and hours completed.

11-I.C. DETERMINATION OF EXEMPTION STATUS AND COMPLIANCE [24 CFR 960.605(c)(3)]

The Housing Authority of Danville must review and verify family compliance with service requirements annually at least thirty days before the end of the twelve-month lease term. The policy for documentation and verification of compliance with service requirements may be found at Section 11-I.D., Documentation and Verification.

Annual Determination

Determination of Exemption Status

An exempt individual is excused from the community service requirement [24 CFR 960.603(a)].

Housing Authority of Danville Policy

At least 120 days prior to lease renewal, the Housing Authority of Danville will review and verify the exemption status of all adult family members. This verification will only be done on an annual basis unless the family reports a change or the Housing Authority of Danville has reason to believe that an individual’s exemption status has changed.

Upon completion of the verification process, the Housing Authority of Danville will notify the family of its determination in accordance with the policy in Section 11-I.B., Notification Requirements.

Determination of Compliance

The Housing Authority of Danville must review resident family compliance with service requirements annually at least thirty days before the end of the twelve-month lease term [24 CFR 960.605(c)(3)]. As part of this review, the Housing Authority of Danville must verify that any family member that is not exempt from the community service requirement has met his or her service obligation.

Housing Authority of Danville Policy

Approximately 120 days prior to the end of the lease term, the Housing Authority of Danville will provide written notice requiring the family to submit documentation that all subject family members have complied with the service requirement. If the family fails to submit the required documentation within the required timeframe specified, or Housing Authority of Danville approved extension, the subject family members will be considered noncompliant with community service requirements, and notices of noncompliance will be issued pursuant to the policies in Section 11-I.E., Noncompliance.

Change in Status Between Annual Determinations

Housing Authority of Danville Policy

Exempt to Non-Exempt Status

If an exempt individual becomes non-exempt during the twelve-month lease term, it is the family’s responsibility to report this change to the Housing Authority of Danville within 10 business days.

Within 10 business days of a family reporting such a change, or the Housing Authority of Danville determining such a change is necessary, the Housing Authority of Danville will provide written notice of the effective date of the requirement, a list of agencies in the community that provide volunteer and/or training opportunities, as well as a documentation form on which the family member may record the activities performed and number of hours contributed.

The effective date of the community service requirement will be the first of the month following 30-day notice.

Non-Exempt to Exempt Status

If a non-exempt person becomes exempt during the twelve-month lease term, it is the family’s responsibility to report this change to the Housing Authority of Danville within 10 business days. Any claim of exemption will be verified by the Housing Authority of Danville in accordance with the policy at 11-I.D., Documentation and Verification of Exemption Status.

Within 10 business days of a family reporting such a change, or the agency determines such a change is necessary, the family will be provided with written notice that the family member is no longer subject to the community service requirement, if the Housing Authority of Danville is able to verify the exemption.

The exemption will be effective immediately.

The Housing Authority of Danville must retain reasonable documentation of service requirement performance or exemption in participant files.

Documentation and Verification of Exemption Status

Housing Authority of Danville Policy

All family members who claim they are exempt from the community service requirement will be required to sign the community service exemption certification form found in Exhibit 11-3 or any other form developed for this purpose. The Housing Authority of Danville will provide a completed copy to the family and will keep a copy in the tenant file.
The Housing Authority of Danville will verify that an individual is exempt from the community service requirement by following the verification hierarchy and documentation requirements in Chapter 7.

The Housing Authority of Danville makes the final determination whether or not to grant an exemption from the community service requirement. If a resident does not agree with the Housing Authority of Danville’s determination, s/he can dispute the decision through the Housing Authority of Danville’s grievance procedures (see Chapter 14).

Documentation and Verification of Compliance

At each regularly scheduled reexamination, each nonexempt family member presents a signed standardized certification form developed by the PHA of community service and self-sufficiency activities performed over the last 12 months [Notice PIH 2015-12].

If qualifying community service activities are administered by an organization other than the PHA, a family member who is required to fulfill a service requirement must provide documentation required by the PHA. The PHA may require a self-certification or certification from a third party [24 CFR 960.607].

If the PHA accepts self-certification of compliance with the community service requirement, it must provide a form which includes a statement that the client performed the required hours, contact information for the community service provider, a description of activities performed, and dates of service.

If the PHA accepts self-certification, it must validate a sample of certifications through third-party documentation. The PHA must notify families that self-certification forms are available and that a sample of self-certifications will be validated.

HUD strongly encourages PHAs to investigate community service compliance when there are questions of accuracy.

Housing Authority of Danville Policy

If anyone in the family is subject to the community service requirement, the Housing Authority of Danville will provide the family with community service documentation forms at admission, at lease renewal, when a family member becomes subject to the community service requirement during the lease term, or upon request by the family.

Each individual who is subject to the requirement will be required to record their community service or self-sufficiency activities and the number of hours contributed on the required form. The certification form will also include places for signatures and phone numbers of supervisors, instructors, and counselors certifying to the number of hours contributed.

Families will be required, upon request, to submit the documentation to the Housing Authority of Danville.

If there is reasonable cause to believe that the certification provided by the family is false or fraudulent, the Housing Authority of Danville has the right to require third-party verification.
11-I.E. NONCOMPLIANCE

Noncompliance Residents

The lease specifies that it is renewed automatically for all purposes, unless the family fails to comply with the community service requirement. Violation of the service requirement is grounds for nonrenewal of the lease at the end of the twelve-month lease term, but not for termination of tenancy during the course of the twelve-month lease term [24 CFR 960.603(b)].

PHAs may not evict a family due to CSSR noncompliance. However, if PHA finds a tenant is noncompliant with CSSR, the PHA must provide written notification to the tenant of the noncompliance which must include:

- A brief description of the finding of non-compliance with CSSR.
- A statement that the PHA will not renew the lease at the end of the current 12-month lease term unless the tenant enters into a written work-out agreement with the PHA or the family provides written assurance that is satisfactory to the PHA explaining that the tenant or other noncompliant resident no longer resides in the unit. Such written work-out agreement must include the means through which a noncompliant family member will comply with the CSSR requirement [24 CFR 960.607(c), Notice PIH 2015-12].

The notice must also state that the tenant may request a grievance hearing on the Housing Authority of Danville’s determination, in accordance with the Housing Authority of Danville’s grievance procedures, and that the tenant may exercise any available judicial remedy to seek timely redress for the Housing Authority of Danville’s nonrenewal of the lease because of the Housing Authority of Danville’s determination.

Housing Authority of Danville Policy

The notice of noncompliance will be sent at least 45 days prior to the end of the lease term.

The family will have 10 business days from the date of the notice of noncompliance to enter into a written work-out agreement to cure the noncompliance over the 12 month term of the new lease, provide documentation that the noncompliant resident no longer resides in the unit, or to request a grievance hearing.

If the family reports that a noncompliant family member is no longer residing in the unit, the family must provide documentation that the family member has actually vacated the unit before the Housing Authority of Danville will agree to continued occupancy of the family. Documentation must consist of a certification signed by the head of household as well as evidence of the current address of the family member that previously resided with them.

If the family does not request a grievance hearing, or does not take either corrective action required by the notice of noncompliance within the required 10 business day timeframe, the Housing Authority of Danville will terminate tenancy in accordance with the policies in Section 13-IV.D.

Resident, vacating housing, must verify all hours of owed while participating in the Community Service program. If the resident fails to provide verification, hours owed will be converted to a monetary sum by multiplying the Community Service hours by the current state mandated minimum wage and added to the move-out charges. If the resident provides proof that Community Service has been performed, the charge will be removed from the account.

Should a family member refuse to sign a written work-out agreement, or fail to comply with the terms of the work-out agreement, PHAs are required to initiate termination of tenancy proceedings at the end of the current 12-month lease (see 24 CFR 966.53(c)) for failure to comply with lease requirements. When initiating termination of tenancy proceedings, the PHA will provide the following procedural safeguards:

- Adequate notice to the tenant of the grounds for terminating the tenancy and for non-renewal of the lease;
- Right of the tenant to be represented by counsel;
- Opportunity for the tenant to refute the evidence presented by the PHA, including the right to confront and cross-examine witnesses and present any affirmative legal or equitable defense which the tenant may have; and,
- A decision on the merits.

Housing Authority of Danville Policy

Notices of continued noncompliance will be sent at least 30 days prior to the end of the lease term and will also serve as the family’s termination notice. The notice will meet the requirements for termination notices described in Section 13-IV.D, Form, Delivery, and Content of the Notice.

The family will have 10 business days from the date of the notice of non-compliance to provide documentation that the noncompliant resident no longer resides in the unit, or to request a grievance hearing.

If the family reports that a noncompliant family member is no longer residing in the unit, the family must provide documentation that the family member has actually vacated the unit before the Housing Authority of Danville will agree to continued occupancy of the family. Documentation must consist of a certification signed by the head of household as well as evidence of the current address of the noncompliant family member that previously resided with them.

If the family does not request a grievance hearing, or provide such documentation within the required 10 business day timeframe, the family’s lease and tenancy will automatically terminate at the end of the current lease term without further notice.

PART II: IMPLEMENTATION OF COMMUNITY SERVICE

11-ILA. OVERVIEW

Each Housing Authority of Danville must develop a policy for administration of the community service and economic self-sufficiency requirements for public housing. It is in the Housing Authority of Danville’s best interests to develop a viable, effective community service program, to provide residents the opportunity to engage in the community and to develop competencies.

Housing Authority of Danville Implementation of Community Service

The Housing Authority of Danville may not substitute any community service or self-sufficiency activities performed by residents for work ordinarily performed by Housing Authority of Danville employees, or replace a job at any location where residents perform activities to satisfy the service requirement [24 CFR 960.609]. Residents may “assist or enhance” the work of an employee through Community Service.

Housing Authority of Danville Policy

The Housing Authority of Danville will notify its insurance company if residents will be performing community service at the Housing Authority of Danville. In addition, the Housing Authority of Danville will ensure that the conditions under which the work is to be performed are not hazardous.

If a disabled resident certifies that s/he is able to perform community service, the Housing Authority of Danville will ensure that requests for reasonable accommodation are handled in accordance with the policies in Chapter 2.

Housing Authority of Danville Program Design

The Housing Authority of Danville may administer qualifying community service or economic self-sufficiency activities directly, or may make community service activities available through a contractor, or through partnerships with qualified organizations, including resident organizations, and community agencies or institutions [24 CFR 960.605(b)].

Housing Authority of Danville Policy

The Housing Authority of Danville will attempt to provide the broadest choice possible to residents as they choose community service activities.

The Housing Authority of Danville’s goal is to design a service program that gives residents viable opportunities to become involved in the community and to gain competencies and skills. The Housing Authority of Danville will work with resident organizations and community organizations to design, implement, assess, and recalibrate its community service program.

The Housing Authority of Danville will make every effort to identify volunteer opportunities throughout the community, especially those in proximity to public housing developments. To the greatest extent possible, the Housing Authority of Danville will provide names and contacts at agencies that can provide opportunities for residents, including persons with disabilities, to fulfill their community service obligations.
